

Coordinator's Report April 6, 2022

1. Early Years Service Providers – Meeting February 10

Family Resource Guides reviewed for accuracy. These will be posted on agency websites and distributed to families to ease access to services Discussion on how to support families together – referrals to FCS and CMHLG are increasing.

Themes identified included: Co-regulation, attachment, messages around sleeping and eating, normalizing mental health support, where to go for service

Action: a work group formed to develop social media messages that will be shared on social media. They will be packaged according to themes.

WTK slide show sent to schools for parent information sessions.

Update: Committee reviewing social media campaigns from Healthy Kids Community Challenge, TripleP etc.

Next meeting April 14

2. Supporting Brockville MDS— Thank you to those who participated in the conversation and/or sent responses to the questions posed. Contact Sig Leslie-Casselman <sigjcasselman@gmail.com> if you have questions or comments to add.

3. Data -- Expressions of interest from CAS and EEC. Goal is to engage Robert Fulton to prepare a data story. To that end we will be continuing to seek out grants.

4. Equity Workgroup – Meeting March 30 (Debbie Jonkman)

Present; Erin Lee, Marg Fancy, Sharon Halladay, Brandy Smith, Elizabeth Snyder

Resource Portal: Marg and Sharon are working with Keith (IT assistance) to streamline process of accessing portal. Both Marg and Sharon have items to add to the portal. Marg and Sharon will provide an update next meeting.

IDI debrief: The debrief for the IDI was well attended, and overall, the outcomes were positive. There was a 15 point discrepancy between where respondents saw themselves and where they actually rate. People completing the exercise have a perceived orientation that we are in adaption, but we are most likely in the acceptance stage. We now need to move develop plans to move toward adaption stage. Erin noted there some resistance exists in the community and in places of employment so while we could be doing well as leaders, Service recipients may not be experiencing what we think they are.

A copy of the preliminary report will be shared with the group. The next step is to book individual meetings to look at individual results and plans.

Quarterly Forum Update: Melissa and Brandy continue to work on this initiative.

Training Exercises at Lead Table: The Lanark lead table went ahead with Erin's presentation on the ZoomBomb experience. It was well received and an opportunity for good discussion. Leeds/Grenville table did not have a

March meeting due to low attendance. Erin will present to LG table in April and the Lanark table to look at tools to manage and address the situation when incidents of racism or oppression happen

We agreed to continue to meet as a group monthly.

Quarterly Forum in May – to focus on language around supporting individuals identifying as LGBTQ+. Format will be Lunch and Learn (Melissa and Brandy Smith to organize) September Quarterly Forum will focus on IDI practices (using immigration lens)
